Expected Meeting Outcomes:

1. Increase understanding of the health workforce challenges faced by Maine employers.
2. Understand the programs, capacity, and challenges of academic institutions in meeting the health workforce needs.
3. Develop strategies to better quantify the workforce needs so academic institutions and employers can better plan and respond.
4. Identify short and long term solutions to increase the pipeline of workers through academic programs and community partnerships that will address current and future workforce challenges.

Planning Committee:

Monika Bissell, President, Maine College of Health Professions
Catharine MacLaren, Vice President, Talent & Diversity, EMHS
Lisa Harvey-McPherson, Vice President Government Relations, EMHS
Dora Ann Mills, Vice President for Clinical Affairs, University of New England
Joan Dolan, Director of Apprenticeship & Strategic Partners, Maine Dept. of Labor
